

As He Began To Leave

Words & Music by Erika Paul
From the cd entitled, "Jumpin' Jelly Beans"

The time was getting late
Beneath the pale moonlight
Then the clouds came
And the rain began

He tried to take a breath
To calm his sad heart
But the lie he told himself
Just got the best of him

And As He Began To Leave
He looked up to see that he
Wasn't forgotten

Then his heart began to beat again
As I held out my hand
In warmth and love
